

Carron UF Church WAR MEMORIAL

(SMR1789)

The war memorial from Carron Church was transferred to Stenhouse & Carron Parish Church after their union in 1963 and is now fixed to its south wall towards the east end of the aisle. It was unveiled by Colonel Henry Wade, C.M.G., D.S.O., Edinburgh, in March 1921. The memorial is of white Sicilian marble and is the work of Mr Roberts, Falkirk. It consists of a rectangular plaque sandwiched between Corinthian pilasters from which hang laurel festoons. The flat cornice has denticulated and ovolo bands. On either end of the entablature are the dates 1914 and 1919. The dates 1939 and 1945 occur towards the bottoms of the pilasters. The main tablet has black lettering that reads:

"TO THE GLORY OF GOD AND IN EVERLASTING REMEMBRANCE OF THE MEN FROM THIS CHURCH WHO GAVE THEIR LIVES
FOR TRUTH LIBERTY AND RIGHTEOUSNESS IN THE WAR.
