

Falkirk Masonic Temple WAR MEMORIAL

(SMR2064)

The memorial is on the east wall of the main hall or Temple and consists of a rectangular brass plaque set on a white marble surround. The sides of the surround are indented, as is the base where five tassels are fixed to either end. The top has a central triangular pediment containing a brass ornament showing a vertical arrow(?) with outstretched wings at the base, a square and compass in a heart in the centre and a flaming terminal. The rectangular brass plaque has inset lettered and decorative panels. The decoration includes the all-seeing eye, the Sun, the crescent moon and oak leaves.

The lettering reads:

"+IN FAITH+IN HOPE+IN CHARITY+
SACRED TO THE MEMORY OF
THE BRETHREN OF LODGE
CALLENDAR No 588, WHO FELL IN THE GREAT WAR+1914+1918+
TRUE.TO.THEIR.GOD.THEIR.KING.THEIR.COUNTRY."