

Reddingmuir Lodge of Loyal Order of Ancient Shepherds WAR MEMORIAL

(SMR829)

To perpetuate the memory of members of the lodge who fell in the Great War, the brothers of the Reddingmuir Lodge No. 2329, A.U., of the Loyal Order of Ancient Shepherds erected a memorial tablet in the interior of the Redding Mission Church, Polmont. It is erected in a prominent position on the left side of the pulpit. The tablet is of polished white marble and bears the names, together with the regiment and date on which they fell, of no fewer than nineteen brothers of the lodge. The rectangular white marble wall tablet is set between squat Corinthian pilasters mounted on brackets.

On the entablature above are the initials "L.O.A.S." for Loyal Order of Ancient Shepherds. The main plaque reads:
