

Polmont, Grandsable Cemetery

WAR MEMORIAL

(SMR596)

Location: (NS 9242 7933) In Grandsable Cemetery.

Description: Hexagonal cross of a stepped pedestal. The cross carries a sword. The design is repeated on a smaller scale in Camelon cemetery where service men and women are also buried. The gravestones here are on the opposite side of the main drive to the cross. It is on these stones that the names given below are individually carved.

Cost: Erected by the Imperial War Graves Commission.

Unveiled by: Air Vice-Marshal R L Ragg on Sunday 30th August 1953. Dedicated by Rev Hugh R Thom, minister of Grangemouth Old Parish Church.
