S00675	EDWARDS	Robert		18940	Pte	Canadian Infantry; 2nd Bn		13/05/1915	19	Hessen, Germany		Camelon	Son of Owen & Margaret Montgomery Edwards, Camelon.			CWGC		"For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty in stripping and repairing a gun and opening fire on the enemy in mass at 200 yards range, when he inflicted very heavy casualties, and broke up their advance. Later, with a platoon of infantry he again displayed marked courage and resource in holding a position until ordered to retire on the day following, when he collected more infantry and covered the withdrawal of other troops." Bar - "For conspicuous gallantry and initiative in operations from 7th to 26th October, 1918. On three occasions - at Cite Ourviere on 13th October, Aubry on the 15th, and Cubray on the 21st - the guns of his section neutralised the fire of the machine guns of the enemy rearguard in concealed positions which were delaying our advance. On 26th October he made a valuable reconnaissance on the west bank of the Escaut, boldly took the gun forward to the Chateau de Foret, and engaged numerous targets on the east side of the canal."
