Military Cross	FH 26.10.1918 p.3d; 19.7.1919 p.8		"In operations south of Baptume he commanded his company with conspicuous ability, showing complete disregard for his personal safety. When the line was held up, he went round reorganising his company, and by his encouragement and brave leading got them to advance again under heavy machine gun fire. Though wounded, he refused to leave his company, and when the line had advanced as far as possible, he did valuable work by selecting positions for defence." No London Gazette entry found.
S07454	PEDDIE	BRUCE	ROBERT		Captain	Army Service Corps	Survived							Lieut acting captain, attached 4th Bn Bedfordshire Regt. Cited January 1919.	Military Cross	London Gazette 11.1.1919 p.638		For conspicuous gallantry and leadership. This officer commanded a company in an attack on a village. When the line was held up he went round reorganizing his men, and by his example and encouragement led them forward in the face of heavy fire. Though wounded, he remained until he had selected positions for defence, when the advance had been carried as far as possible.
